RECEIVES SON'S MEDAL. James A. Gray, Jr., right, of 1109 Newton St., Elba, Ala., is presented his son's Bronze Star Medal received for valor in Vietnam. Private First Class Delacy Gray, a member of Company A, 5th Battalion, 60th Infantry, 9th Infantry Division, died Feb. 23 from wounds received from a booby trap. Making the presentation is Colonel Lester F. Schockner, deputy commander of the Army Aviation Center, Ft. Rucker, Ala. (U.S. Army Photo)

There will be an all one is invited. Tuesday, July 4th. Every day Sacred Harp singing at the Bethlehem Church located seven miles south of Elba.

LET'S EAT Dorsey style was the theme of the day last Friday when the employees of Dorsey Trailers held their annual summer company party. The upper group was responsible for frying the chicken, cooking the rice and seeing that it was all ready and hot at 4 P. M. when the food began. The lower photo shows a portion of the assembly line that was preparing the plates for the employees. They bagged up several hundred dinners ahead of the 4 o'clock eating time and still kept busy "building plates" until everyone was fed. The event was held a week early this year due to the inconveniences of holding it the last day before vacation. Dorsey vacations begin on the week-end prior to the 4th of July.

W. N. SAUNDERS AND J. C. KELLEY were among the Worshipful Masters installed in ceremonies at Florida last Saturday. Mason Jim Ingram of Troy was installing officer. Worshipful Masters being installed are from left: W. N. Saunders, Kinross Lodge No. 869, Kinross; Tom McDaniel, Andalusia Lodge No. 434, Andalusia; Fred Kelley, Stokes Lodge No. 609, Falcio; J. C. Kelley, Hacoda Lodge No. 631, Hacoda; and Vernon Robbins, Fidelity Lodge No. 685, Florida.

Golf Tournament Is Planned In Elba

The Elba Country Club will hold the annual membership Roy King Memorial Golf Tournament on Tuesday, July 4th. This is the third straight year this tournament will be held.

Trophies will be given to winners of each flight and also trophies for runner-up. Winner of the championship flight will receive a club trophy and his (or her) name will be placed on the Roy King Memorial Trophy that remains at the club.

The Jewel Box will give to the first person making a hole-in-one, a beautiful Gruen watch. Other prizes are: closest tee shot to hole; No. 2-grease job at Amoco Service Station; No. 5-Wilson Golf ball from Hayes Hardware; No. 8-gold shirt, Board of Directors Elba Country Club.

Elba Apparel Begins Vacation Next Week

The employees of Elba Apparel will be on vacation from July 1st through July 16th, according to information released by plant manager, Jerry Andrews.

The seventy employees of the Elba plant will join some 2800 other employees of the eight other Alaflex plants in observing this annual holiday.

Mr. Paul Scherf, Vice president of Industrial Relations, Andalusia has released some interesting figures concerning vacation pay: Vacation pay for all companies amount to over $307,000 with $7,000 of that going to employees of the Elba plant.

Scherf explains that employees will receive one week's pay for 1 week paid vacation and those with 3 years qualify for 2 weeks paid vacation.

Registrars To Meet Four Additional Days

The Coffee County Board of Registrars will meet at the Elba Courthouse on July 3, 5, and 6th. The Board will meet in Enterprise on July 7, 8, and 17th, should meet before the become exigencies to cast a ballot in Coffee County Board on one of the above dates.

Hog Growers To Meet Tonight

Coffee County Hog Producers and their wives will hear Dr. R. N. Terrell, specialist in Food Science at their mid-summer Pork Promotion dinner meeting in Elba June 29 according to Robert English, president of the Association. The pork promotion dinner will be held in the high school lunchroom at 7:30 P.M. Members of the meat packing industry in Coffee County are providing some of the pork products which will be served.

The Hog Producers association, through the Elba Pork Promotion Committee, has made special arrangements for this dinner which has been set up to focus attention on the nutritive value of pork. Hog Producers Association members appointed to the dinner committee are: L. B. McCall, Curtis Wilkes, and Wildon Bryan.

Social Security Rep. In Elba On Tuesday

A Social Security representative will be at the Health Center in Elba every Tuesday from 9:30 to 12:00 noon, beginning July 11 through September, according to an announcement from the Social Security Office for this area.

If you have any questions about social security with the representative any Tuesday scheduled to be at the Health Center in Elba, or visit the Dothan Office located at the Federal Building, 100 West Street, Dothan, Alabama.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a treasure of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plans to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Psalm	145	7-12
Monday	Matthew	22	7-12
Tuesday	Psalm	119	1-6
Wednesday	1 Timothy	1	1-16
Thursday	John	1	22-24
Friday	Revelation	1	11-19
Saturday	Psalm	65	6-7

After refueling the helicopters nine times during flight, the HC-130 crews returned to their home station at Eglin AFB, Fla. Captain Christian and the other in his crew are members of the Air Force's select Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Service (ARRS). The ARRS, which flies combat and peacetime air rescue and aeromedical evacuation missions, logged 613 world-wide "saves" last year.

SUMMER-WISE—The "in" look for summer is the minicloth done in a small edition. Striped cotton sailcloth for brief culotte pants and mid-thigh necktie contrast with a sleeveless bodice of natural tone cotton.

Citizens Urged To Visit Social Security Office

With medicare a part of the social security retirement picture, it is more important than ever for people approaching 65 to visit the social security office well before they arrive at that milestone birthday.

Before medicare, said Harry N. Scott, District Manager for Social Security in Dothan, a person just naturally waited to find out about his social security retirement benefits until he was on the point of retiring. If he delayed month or two, there was no particular problem because his retirement benefits could be paid retroactively for up to 12 months.

But now, every person nearing age 65 must decide whether he wants the doctor bill insurance part of medicare. This medical insurance protection is not retroactive and an elderly person must sign up in one of the 3 months before his 65th birthday in order to be covered as soon as he reaches 65.

The initial enrollment period for the doctor bill insurance begins three months before his 65th birthday, and extends to 3 months after that birthday month, but he must sign up in the 3 months before his birthday month in order to have coverage as soon as he is 65. If he waits until the month of his birthday, or the remaining 3 months of odd-numbered years) and they may have to pay a monthly premium higher than the present $3.00 a month. To make it easy for people who are still working to take care of their social security business, the Dothan Social Security Office now has office hours on Saturday from 9:00 A.M. until 12:00 noon.

Persons missing their first enrollment period will have to wait until the next general enrollment period (the last 3 months of odd-numbered years) and they may have to pay a monthly premium higher than the present $3.00 a month. ## BURSITIS IS A PAINFUL AILMENT

In many cases bursitis is considered to be part of an arthritic tendency. A bursa is a little sac, often containing an oily like substance. It may be positioned under a muscle or a tendon and there it serves as a pulley.

When a bursa becomes inflamed it may fill up with calcium, sometimes called "lime" salts, which can be easily seen with X-rays. In the early stages it cannot be seen with X-ray examination. Usually two out of three treatments with rays. Sometimes injections are needed. Quick medical examination and treatment usually saves much pain.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE SUNDAY

Honeymoon Afternoon

Memories are precious things. I remember often the afternoon on our honeymoon when Jim and I visited these old cliff dwellings in Colorado. Later, we stopped at a mission church built of pink adobe. It was dark and cool inside, and you felt that many prayers had been said here, and many answered.

I thought of our own church back home—white frame, in a green New England valley. I was reared in that church. I was married in it, and you'll find Jim and me at worship in it each Sunday. It's a vital part of our life.

Unless you have a church that is vital to your life, you are missing something irreplaceable. Don't wait any longer. Select the Church of your choice—and start attending it this Sunday.

FARM NEWS

By Tom Casaday, County Extension Chairman

PLEASURABLE Virginia Sanders is giving one of the side benefits top leadership to Coffee Association port promotion dinner is the exchange of local 4-H leaders, are re-lects among growers. Good quiring quality project hog folks will have chance work. Records are being kept and parents are urged to increase profits, to help and encourage their set for this Thursday night at the Elba High School at 7:30 p.m. is going to be mighty pleasurable. How could it be otherwise with all the good pork to eat and with Dr. Robert Terrell to talk on the nutritive value of pork.

CHOLERA

Dr. V.D. McCreary of the state Diagnostic Lab in Elba notified us of a cholera outbreak on a farm just across the line in Pike County. All of our veterinarians recognize the need to continue vaccinating pigs. This is the surest hog cholera in Coffee County. What kind of vaccination program do you have?

BEER PROFITS I hope the work of the American Cattlemen's Association and their affiliates State Association can be helpful in making cattle business more profitable. They are working on three big projects which ought to help. First, a big effort is being made to cut down on feeding to real heavy weight. Second, the cattle folks are trying to cut down on beef imports, and thirdly, Alabama cattle producers are carrying out an aggressive beef promotion program. All of these things plus good herd management will pay off nicely in the years ahead. It's about time!

PREVENTION Coffee County's number one peanut disease can be controlled only by prevention. It's called "leafspot." The disease causes leaves to become spotted and in a few days they fall off. Good healthy leaves are a must if you are to get a good yield. We recommend Copper-sulfur as a dust. Other liquid materials may also be used. We recommend at least four dusting or sprayings. Be sure to use enough material and apply often enough. About 100 pounds of copper-sulfur will take care of an acre throughout the season.

IRRIGATION Lawrence Ennis, Jr., our specialist in irrigation at Auburn, will spend a day with us in early July. He'll be working with Paul Martin, a Kinston dairyman. If you would like to talk with him about irrigation, get in touch with me and we'll make arrangements.

YOUNG PEOPLE I believe Coffee County's young people, especially the 4-H Club members, are busier than ever this summer with project work. Dan Presley and

Soybeans Are Booming in Alabama

Soybean plantings in Alabama are on the boom. Chairman, Thomas Casaday, says management and marketing Extension agricultural specialists have prepared publications on soybean production, management, harvesting and storage.

Bulletins, leaflets and circulars covering these subjects are available at all county Extension offices. Contact your local county Extension office for complete detailed information on soybean production.

Peanut Farmers Warned Against Leaf Spot

Alabama peanut farmers were warned today to prepare to fight the late against leaf spot has begun.

Investigations of fields in Henry and Houston counties showed that peanut leaf spot is already present. "Reports Dr. Luther Farrar, Auburn University Extension plant pathologist. He checked 10 fields and found light to heavy infestation of leaf spot on Floradant, Early Runner and Virginia 67 varieties.

"Severe leaf spot infestation defoliates the plants, resulting in greatly reduced yields," says Farrar. Growers are advised to begin a dust or spray program immediately and repeat applications every 10 to 14 days. If it rains between application, dust or spray as soon after the rain as possible. Thoroughly cover the foliage with each application and continue applications until peanuts are mature and ready for harvest.

COFFEE NEWS & CHAT

BY SARA E. HUTCHINSON

LAWN Maintenance is a big job to be accomplished during the hot summer months. Disease, insects, and hot, dry weather plague the lawn.

One good rule to follow is remove grass clipping when you mow. This prevents build up of disease spores and insects. Another step you'll want to follow is watering. Don't allow the grass to become wilted before water is applied.

TIED FEET When feet swell, perspire, and absorb heat from burning pavements, it's time for soothing foot baths. "Take 10" fill the bathtub ankle-high with warm soapy water, sit on the edge of the tub or on a stool drawn alongside, and soak your feet. Then scrub feet and legs with a well-sudsed brush, using a soapy pumice stone on rough or callused areas. Rinse feet with alternately warm and cool water, and finish with a cold splash.

AIR CONDITIONING Recent hot muggy days have sent many homeowners scurrying to their from local lending institutions. Funds available for direct loans are designed to be repaid in installments over a period of ten years. These small loans are designed to meet the needs of the very small business.

The character of the borrower is an important consideration for this type of loan because the applicant may have little to offer in the form of collateral or security. Loans as small as $200 have been made in this category.

Under SBA's loan guarantee plan loans up to $50,000 may be made to small businesses because the government does not advance any portion of the funds. The loans are made by banks with a guaranteeing up to 90 percent.

Then a bank decides to make a loan under the guarantee plan, the details are submitted to SBA for approval. Many of the larger loans to small businesses by banks carry SBA's guarantee in case of default.

LOANS TO CUT UNEMPLOYMENT
Under the economic opportunity act the SBA also has authority to make loans to enterprises where such loans would help to reduce unemployment.

Disaster loans are direct loans made to businessmen in sections designated as disaster areas by an authorized federal agency for any of a number of reasons such as drought, flood, tornado, hurricane, or other natural disasters. These loans are interest free, at three percent per annum, made to assist the disaster stricken.

A rural development loan may be made to a business in a rural area if it is found that such a loan would prevent unemployment or increase employment in the area. Rural development loans are also available from areas of redevelopment administration, which is interested in fostering business expansion in rural areas, specifically those areas where the rate of unemployment is above normal.

Recently a bank-area participation loan was granted to a rural North Carolina Processing Plant, enabling the firm to double the number of its employees.

Despite the tightening money market during the past year, the small business administration has helped many small businesses to obtain needed funds. Bernard L. Boutin, SBA Administrator, reports that 43,678 loans totaling $646 million were approved during a recent 12 month period.

"We can now accommodate many small businessmen," he said, "especially those who have been pinched for funds during this period of unprecedented business activity coupled with extremely tight credit. This easing of loan restrictions is in line with SBA's objective of providing every possible assistance to small business."

There are three types of loans available to small businesses from the Small Business Administration. These are direct loans, guaranty loans and participation loans.

Loans in the three categories have ranged from $1,000 for direct loans to $500,000 for guaranteed loans. New regulations provide that direct loans may now be made up to $100,000, participation loans to $150,000 and guaranteed loans to $500,000. Loan may be made.

When a bank agrees to participate with SBA in a loan, the bank will furnish not less than 25 percent of the amount and SBA will furnish the balance.

In most cases of Bank/ SBA participation agreements, the bank will assist the potential borrower with filing the loan application. If a bank will not assist, the applicant may visit the nearest SBA field office, obtain the proper forms and discuss his needs with a financial specialist.

OR, a LOCAL BANK INVOLVED
If a bank will not make a loan, a loan by itself, the businessman may apply for a direct loan. Application for a direct loan must be accompanied by a letter from a bank, stating that the bank is unable to make the requested loan. A statement of inability to make a loan may be due to lack of funds, or may indicate that the bank is not willing to assume the risk.

A large percentage of small business direct loans from local lending institutions. Funds available for direct loans are designed to be repaid in installments over a period of ten years. These small loans are designed to meet the needs of the very small business.

The character of the borrower is an important consideration for this type of loan because the applicant may have little to offer in the form of collateral or security. Loans as small as $200 have been made in this category.

Under SBA's loan guarantee plan loans up to $50,000 may be made to small businesses because the government does not advance any portion of the funds. The loans are made by banks with a guaranteeing up to 90 percent.

Then a bank decides to make a loan under the guarantee plan, the details are submitted to SBA for approval. Many of the larger loans to small businesses by banks carry SBA's guarantee in case of default.

LOANS TO CUT UNEMPLOYMENT
Under the economic opportunity act the SBA also has authority to make loans to enterprises where such loans would help to reduce unemployment.

Disaster loans are direct loans made to businessmen in sections designated as disaster areas by an authorized federal agency for any of a number of reasons such as drought, flood, tornado, hurricane, or other natural disasters. These loans are interest free, at three percent per annum, made to assist the disaster stricken.

A rural development loan may be made to a business in a rural area if it is found that such a loan would prevent unemployment or increase employment in the area. Rural development loans are also available from areas of redevelopment administration, which is interested in fostering business expansion in rural areas, specifically those areas where the rate of unemployment is above normal.

Recently a bank-area participation loan was granted to a rural North Carolina Processing Plant, enabling the firm to double the number of its employees.
